Call for Entries:

Indiana Legal Services is looking for works of art including visual art, photography, etc. that depict the themes of justice for our inaugural Art of Justice Show & Contest. What constitutes art and themes of justice will both be broadly defined.

Access the submission form by clicking here: Contestant Entry

Entries will be accepted from three categories: the general public, Indiana attorneys, and students. There is a maximum of three entries per person. A $500 cash prize will be awarded for winners in each category. Winners will be determined via an online public fundraiser wherein a $1 donation to Indiana Legal Services equals one vote. An additional $250 prize in each category will be given based on the decision of a committee of judges.

Entrants will have the option to market their piece for sale at a price of their choosing. Indiana Legal Services will “markup” designated prices by 15% and retain said 15% as part of the fundraiser, remitting the entire designated price to the artist.

Being a virtual event, entrants will only need to submit photographs of their work for the contest. Physical submission of the piece will only take place if the entrant chooses to sell their piece and the piece is sold.

The deadline for entries is 11:59 p.m. eastern time on November 27, 2020. The contest will be held online between December 1-18, 2020.
