Consumer Law Center

Welcome to the Consumer Law Center

Our goal is to represent, educate and advocate on behalf of Hoosiers to ensure they know, understand and exercise their rights as consumers.

What We Do

We serve the community by providing individuals assistance with various consumer related legal issues:

- Auto fraud
- Bankruptcy
- Civil forfeiture
- Debt collection: abusive practices
- Debt defense
- Predatory lending
- Repossessions
- Unfair or deceptive acts related to consumer purchases
- Wage garnishment

We are also available to do outreach and education throughout the state. If you would like to host a session on consumer protection topics, please contact the office that serves your county.

The Indianapolis-based Consumer Advocacy Project is a unique project based at the Center for Working Families. Individuals working with financial coaches at the community centers have access to legal help to address consumer and re-entry legal issues through the Project. For more information about the Consumer Advocacy Project at the John Boner Neighborhood Centers and at the Hawthorne Community Center, please click on the brochure links below.

Who We Represent

Our Consumer Law Center Director, John Brengle, is based in the ILS New Albany office and we have attorneys and paralegals working on consumer and bankruptcy cases throughout the state.

Although we provide representation free of charge, we are limited to assisting individuals whose income does not exceed 125% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (200% in some circumstances). Click here to learn more about these guidelines.

How to Apply

You may apply by phone or online, depending in which county you reside. Please visit "Apply for Help" for details.
