

Court Forms for Name and Gender Marker Changes

Below are the forms needed to represent yourself in a name and gender marker change case. If you would like the LGBT project to represent you in court or fill out the papers for you, please contact us at lgbtgroup@ilsi.net or 317-829-3180.

All the packets include forms, instructions, filing directions and a hearing guide.

If you are an adult without a felony conviction, you should use the Self-represented Adult Name and Gender Change Packet

If you are an adult with a felony conviction, you should use the Self-represented Felony Conviction Name and Gender Change Packet

If you are seeking to change the name of a minor, you should use the Self-represented Minor Name and Gender Change Packet.

If you are seeking to only change your gender marker (and not your name), you should use the Self-Represented Gender Change Only Packet.

If you are seeking to only change your gender marker (and not your name), you should use the Self-Represented Name Change Only Packet.

Once your name and gender marker are changed, you can use the Updating Your Identity Documents guide to have your birth certificate, social security card and BMV id match your correct name and gender marker.

Information about updating your name and gender marker on non-Indiana ids is available at National Center for Transgender Equality's Indiana Document Center
